SHIFT GROUP ALUMNI

Working with Shift group exceeded my expectations! I can't thank JR and George enough for helping me land my dream job in tech sales! With their guidance, coaching, intensive training and preparation I was truly prepared for my interview process. I can't recommend them enough to other fellow former athletes. Retiring from professional sports was hard. But Shift group showed me how to redirect those skills into the professional world. Shift group is everything they claim to be and more!

Working with Shift Group has allowed me to pursue my dreams by teaching me the skills needed to start my next career. Shift Group really focused on the attributes that allowed me to be successful in my military career and showed me how I can use them to set myself apart from the competition. I would 100% recommend Shift Group to all veterans or active service members transitioning out of the military who are looking to get set up on the road to a successful career.

Shift Group was pivotal for me. It was a daunting feat to apply for SDR roles in this competitive market. My SaaS sales knowledge was limited and in that short time, they provided mentorship, coaching, skills training, office hours, and a rich network of companies that reached out to me. Shift Group takes care of you, and I'm grateful to call myself an alum!

I had the pleasure and opportunity to work with Shift Group during my career search. From top to bottom I could not have asked for a better experience or better people to work with. Anyone else that is transitioning from military service or athletics should without a doubt talk with Shift Group if you want to consider a new career. Nobody else is doing it how these guys are and I am grateful I got to work with such an excellent team. Dialed in!
